

Nursery Newsletter

October 5 - 9, 2020

October is off to a great start! Along with our October Poem and Migration Poem, we have continued learning about autumn in our time outdoors.

French

- Continued with all we've been working on to improve and master

Books

- A Pair of Creepy Underwear
- A Bunny Surprise
- There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Bat
- Happy Halloween, Little Critters!

Math

- Continued working on number books
- Sorting numbers and colors using number and color dice
- Practiced rolling the dice and sorting the right color and number of muffins

Practical Life

- Talked about Jack-O-Lanterns and making our own by drawing faces on pumpkin pictures
- Practiced cutting with scissors

ELA

- Introduced letter B with tracing uppercase and lowercase B, tracing words that begin with B
- Used clues during soundbox to solve what object is inside: banana, beanbag, bread

Next week we will be rotating teachers. Group A: Mimi and Jeanne, Group B: Stephanie and Paige, Group C: Shella and Marina.. Reminder to please make sure you are accurately checking in and out your children through the Brightwheel app. Enjoy the beautiful weather we're getting over this long weekend!

Migration Poem

Birds don't have calendars
Birds don't have clocks
But somehow each autumn
They go up in flocks
Nobody tells them
Or teaches them how
But birds know when to migrate
And look, there they go now!

October Poem

The month is October
With leaves falling down
That once were all yellow
And scarlett and brown
