

Nursery Newsletter

March 1-5, 2021

As always, please continue to pack boots, hats, gloves, and snow/rain pants

French

- We read the book J'aime L'école by Marilyn Janovitz, La doudouce de Flora by Debi Gliori, and Les saisons
- We reviewed our alphabet and numbers
- We are practicing introducing ourselves and expressing how we are doing in a formal manner

Math

- We learned about symmetry by folding paper into equal halves and putting paint on one half before folding it back over to make a symmetrical painting

ELA

- Our letter of the week is L
- We continued practicing Hooked on Phonics and learning the letters and their sounds
- We have continued talking about CVC words and sounding them out

Practical Life

- We said hello to March and are learning the poem "March" by Emily Dickinson
- We have continued learning about France and made our own French flags
- We practiced lacing using yarn

Have a safe and relaxing weekend!
